MIKE MITCHELL MARCHES

With One Foot Frozen: Fighting Ute Indians and the Other Cut During War of the Sixties Arkansas Grand Army Veteran Bears Flag.

Toledo, Sept. 2.—With flags flying, bands playing, crowds cheering and a bright sky, overhead, the veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic for the forty-second time marched through two miles of streets, guarded by the younger generation soldiers of the Seventh regiment of the Ohio national guard who restrained the throngs of sightseers at the ropes, the old campaigners of Grant and Sherman, moved to the blaze of trumpet and pipe and roll of fire and drum. At the official reviewing stand, where stood W. H. Taft, Governor Harris, Senator Foraker, Mayor, Whitlock and many other notables, colors were dipped as each department commander joined Commander-in-Chief Burton in the stand.

The parade being the leading feature of the encampment, many posts timed their arrival for that event and the crowd of visitors was vastly augmented. At dawn squads of them were on the streets watching the city employees making clean the pavement on the line of march and stringing ropes along curbstones to hold the crowds in check. The day had been proclaimed a holiday by the mayor and a majority of business places as well as all public offices were closed.

With a small delegation from Arkansas marched Michael Mitchell, who, true to his promise, sustained himself with honor by carrying the department flag, leaving his cane at his hotel. Mr. Mitchell's right foot was frozen campaigning against the Ute Indians and the other one cut up by a rifle ball during the civil war. Ordinarily he walks with the assistance of a heavy cane.

The Texans, some forty of whom were in line, attracted marked attention by a seven foot spread of steers' horns carried by Colonel Dexter Wagner.

Ransom post of St. Louis, named by General Sherman in honor of the youngest major general in the northern forces, who died of fever on the march to the sea, made an impressive appearance. New York had well over 1,000 veterans in line.

The delegates from Utah displayed on their breasts keys inscribed: "Come to Salt Lake in 1909; Where the Sage Lily Grows."

W. H. Taft and Senator Foraker, meeting for the first time since the Republican convention created a hurricane of cheers when they shook hands with each other on the official stand while the parade was passing.

Senator Stephenson Successful.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 2.—Returns received indicate that United States Senator Stephenson of Marinette has carried the Republican primaries. It is estimated he will have from 10,000 to 15,000 plurality, over S. A. Cook. For Democratic endorsement for United States senator Neal Brown of Wausaw leads Melvin A. Hoyt of Milwaukee, by a safe plurality. Jacob Rummel was nominated by the Social Democrats.

For governor the Republicans have chosen J. O. Davidson, the present incumbent. John A. Aylward leads the Democrats. One of the greatest sensations was the defeat of Congressman Jenkins of the Eleventh district by Irving L. Lenroot, former speaker of the state assembly and a strong La Follette follower.

MORE YELLOW FEVER.

Several Cases Exist In and Not Far From Vera Cruz.

Austin, Sept. 2.—The state health department has been advised by Dr. J. F. Hayes of that department, who is in Mexico looking over the yellow fever situation, that a number of new cases have broken out in and around Vera Cruz and south of that point. The state may take up the matter with the Mexican government to see if the disease cannot be checked, as it is getting too close to Texas.

The time in which purchasers of state lands had to pay interest before the land is declared forfeited, expired at 10 o'clock Wednesday. This interest was due Nov. 1, 1907, but the state granted purchasers to Sept. 2, 1908, before the land was declared forfeited. As many out of the 65,000 have failed to pay interest, thousands of acres of state land forfeited for non-payment interest are thrown on the market.

He returned for Cornelius and Miss Metcalf, but before he reached the spot where the boat capsized they had drowned.

Roberts of Baltimore, who was shot, it is claimed by a highwayman, on the board walk here last Wednesday night, continues to improve, and his recovery is not doubted. The police have made no progress in their efforts to apprehend the assailant of Mr. Roberts.

Falls Under Steam Hammer.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 2.—Soy Skishep fell under a steam hammer at the Duquesne Steel works. His head was so badly battered he died.

REMARKABLE RECOVERY.

Patient In Advanced Stage of Lockjaw Cured.

New York, Sept. 2.—A case of tetanus in an advanced stage has just been cured at St. John's hospital, Brooklyn. It is believed that the cure was effected through the use of sodium chloride, as advised by the specialists of the Rockefeller institute. The patient was Allen Kollock, fifteen years old, of Woodhaven, L. I. Three weeks ago, while at Patogue, a foot was run over and a toe badly crushed. Dirt got into the wound. It was cleansed, but the foot swelled to almost twice its normal size.

The swelling then was reduced and no alarm was felt. Eight days after the accident the boy found that he could not open his jaws.

A doctor pronounced the case to be rheumatism. The next day the boy's jaws were more tightly clinched than ever, and the doctor then decided he was suffering from tetanus. He was rushed to the hospital. His body became rigid and it was impossible to unbend it. Then the injured toe was amputated.

Following the operation a 25 per cent solution of sodium chloride was injected directly into the spinal cord. Immediately the boy's vitality began to ebb and he was in a state of collapse for sixteen hours. The injection of 3,000 units of anti-tetanus serum and salt solutions were also used and gradually his mouth began to open. He was fed through a bottle. On the sixth day after the sodium chloride injection he began to show marked signs of improvement. His recovery was rapid from that day.

May Be Long Session.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 2.—Senator McCumber of North Dakota, who has just returned from visits to President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft, expressed the opinion that the extra session of congress to be called after March 4 for the revision of the tariff will be of long duration and that it will witness many stubborn contests over the various schedules which it is proposed to change. Mr. McCumber said that the west will demand that several articles which are now on the protected list shall be made free of duty.

Hammond Succeeds McAlpin.

New York, Sept. 2.—John Hays Hammond, a well known metallurgist, was elected president of the National League of Republican Clubs, to succeed E. A. McAlpin, who recently resigned. The committee issued a call for a convention of the organization for Sept. 22 at Cincinnati.

Smallest Since 1892.

White River Junction, Vt., Sept. 2.—The Republicans won the election by carrying the state for Lieutenant Governor Prouty of Newport for governor by about 28,000 over James E. Burke of Burlington, his Democratic opponent. The plurality was the smallest in a presidential year since 1892.

Committee Meeting Called.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—Secretary Urey Woodson of the Democratic national committee sent out notices to all members of the national committee requesting their presence at a meeting to be held here on Sept. 8. No specific reason was given, but it is understood that plans for the campaign will be discussed.
